

Playing Draw & Compare Decimals

- 1 Carmen is playing Draw & Compare Decimals with her partner. Carmen drew 4, 7, 6, 0, and 2 and has to use three of the cards to make a decimal number less than 1.

0. _____

- a If they are playing for “more,” what decimal should Carmen make?
- b If they are playing for “less,” what decimal should Carmen make?
- 2 James and Ryan are also playing Draw & Compare Decimals. They are playing for less, and James made the decimal 0.149 with his digit cards.
- a Ryan drew the following cards: 5, wild card, 0, 7, and 2. Does Ryan need to use his wild card to win the round?
- b List two decimals that Ryan could create to win the round.
- 3 Shawn and Jane are playing Draw & Compare Decimals and are playing for more. Shawn made 0.879 and Jane made 0.987. Both students say they won the round.
- a Who is correct?
- b Explain how you know.
- 4 Find the sums. Show your thinking.
- a $$57.99 + \14.25
- c $$1,689 + \145
- b $$23.45 + \19.99