

True Hero of California Rubric

Beginning	Approaching	Proficient	Advanced
*The written information needs more detail	*The written information is detailed	*The written information is well-detailed	*The written information is very well-detailed
*The written information has a great many inaccuracies	*The written information has many inaccuracies	*The written information is accurate but may have an error or two	*The written information is very accurate
*The written information needs to better prove the person to be the true hero of CA	*The written information somewhat helps to prove the person to be the true hero of CA	*The written information helps to prove the person to be the true hero of CA	*The written information helps a great deal to prove the person to be the true hero of CA
*The group needed to address the definition of a hero	*The group addressed the definition of a hero	*The group addressed the definition of a hero well	*The group addressed the definition of a hero very well
*The presentation of the information needs improvement	*The presentation of the information was average	*The presentation of the information was well done	*The presentation of the information was extremely well done
*The final statement needed more persuasion	*The final statement was average	*The final statement was well done	*The final statement was extremely well done
*There were no artifacts to try to help prove the person to be the hero of CA	*There were artifacts to try to help prove the person to be the hero of CA	*There were good artifacts to help prove the person to be the hero of CA	*There were excellent artifacts to help prove the person to be the hero of CA
*The group needed to do a better job of proving that their person is the hero of CA	*The group did an average job of proving that their person is the hero of CA	*The group did a good job of proving that their person is the hero of CA	*The group did an outstanding job of proving that their person is the hero of CA
*The group needed to improve job of collaborating	*The group did an average job of collaborating	*The group did a good job of collaborating	*The group did an outstanding job of collaborating

Score: